school garden produce served in the cafeteria "liked it." Strengthened relationships with district food service staff, which resulted in a 50% increase in the amount of vegetables harvested from school gardens being used in the elementary school cafeterias. Community Programs Accomplishments- Implemented the Burnham's Field Community Garden expansion project, which included building a new 16-bed garden in a low-income neighborhood, and mounting an outreach campaign to attract new garden participants. The garden is now full for the 2017 growing season and includes low-income seniors, families, YMCA after school programs, non-English speaking families, and recently arrived refugee families. This garden will serve over 50 new individuals in 2017. Provided services and learning opportunities for 12 new and 12 returning participants in our Backyard Garden Program, including garden trainings, cooking workshops, follow up check ins. Developed and implemented new gardening workshops and community events that are free for program participants and fee-based for the general public. Examples of our new workshops include a fermentation workshop in partnership with Pigeon Cove Ferments, gardening inspired art workshops in partnership with Rocky Neck Art Colony.
